The Chairman said a quorum was present and the sixth meeting of the Community Involvement, Culture and Recreation Committee (CICRC) in 2024 commenced officially. He welcomed all Members and departmental representatives to the meeting, in particular those who attended the CICRC meeting for the first time:

- Ms Amy YUEN, Assistant Social Work Officer, Sai Kung Integrated Family Service Centre, Social Welfare Department (SWD); and
- Ms Iris WONG, Senior Manager (Youth Service), and Ms Rebecca LAM, Social Worker, of the Artiste Training Alumni Association Jockey Club Tseung Kwan O Youth Square, Hong Kong Family Welfare Society (HKFWS).

I. Confirmation of Minutes of the 5th CICRC Meeting in 2024 held on 17 September 2024

2. The Chairman said the Secretariat had not received any proposed amendment before the meeting. As there was no proposed amendment at the meeting either, the Chairman declared that the above minutes were confirmed.

II. Report Items

(A) Introduction of Social Welfare Services/District Collaboration Projects in Sai Kung/Tseung Kwan O - Hong Kong Family Welfare Society

3. Ms Iris WONG and Ms Rebecca LAM of HKFWS introduced the projects with the presentation slides.

4. Members' views and enquiries were summarised as follows:

- They enquired about the ratio of staff and social workers of HKFWS to its service users.
- They suggested that HKFWS should work with the Care Teams of Sai Kung District to provide training services for volunteers. HKFWS should also collaborate with the ward offices of District Council members and district organisations such as Sai Kung and Tseung Kwan O Women's Association to co-organise activities and courses.

5. Ms Iris WONG, Senior Manager (Youth Service), Artiste Training Alumni Association Jockey Club Tseung Kwan O Youth Square, HKFWS gave consolidated responses as follows:

- According to SWD's planning standards, there would be one Integrated Children and Youth Services Centre (ICYSC) providing services for every 12 000 children and youth aged 6 to 24.
- To align with the development and needs of the community, such as concerns about mental health and emotional problems, as well as increasingly complicated family issues, the Centre would provide more in-depth services for the youth and their families in need.
- There were around 40 staff members in the Centre, including eight social workers in the establishment of ICYSC, school-based social workers, social workers for other service projects, and event staff. The Centre served children and youth from both within and outside the district through community-based, school-based and project-based services. The Centre would fulfill the requirements of SWD's Funding and Service Agreements while utilising resources in a flexible manner.

- She welcomed Members' suggestions and looked forward to more district collaboration projects.
