Welcome Remarks

The Chairman said a quorum was present and the first meeting of the Community Involvement, Culture and Recreation Committee (CICRC) in 2026 commenced officially. He welcomed all Members and departmental representatives to the meeting, in particular those who attended the CICRC meeting for the first time:

- Mr Kenneth SO, Acting Supervisor (Tseung Kwan O & Special Project), The Boys' & Girls' Clubs Association of Hong Kong (BGCA); and
- Mr CHEUNG Chi-kan, Social Work Officer 2 (Planning & Coordinating), Wong Tai Sin/Sai Kung District Planning and Coordinating Team, Social Welfare Department (SWD).

I. Confirmation of Minutes of the 6th CICRC Meeting in 2025 held on 18 November 2025

2. The Chairman said the Secretariat had not received any proposed amendment before the meeting. As there was no proposed amendment at the meeting either, the Chairman declared that the above minutes were confirmed.

II. Report Items

(A) Introduction of Social Welfare Services/District Collaboration Projects in Sai Kung/Tseung Kwan O - The Boys' & Girls' Clubs Association of Hong Kong Jockey Club Tseung Kwan O Children & Youth Integrated Services Centre

3. Mr Kenneth SO, Acting Supervisor (Tseung Kwan O & Special Project) of BGCA; and Mr CHEUNG Chi-kan, Social Work Officer 2 (Planning & Coordinating), Wong Tai Sin/Sai Kung District Planning and Coordinating Team of SWD introduced relevant projects with the presentation slides.

4. A Member enquired about the operation of the special educational needs (SEN)-friendly space, as well as the ages and backgrounds of Youth Advisors.

5. Mr Kenneth SO, Acting Supervisor (Tseung Kwan O & Special Project) of BGCA gave consolidated responses as follows:

- The Jockey Club Tseung Kwan O Children & Youth Integrated Services Centre (the Services Centre) would ensure that children and young people with SEN could participate in activities on an equal basis. Training would also be provided for instructors of interest classes organised by the Services Centre, enabling them to learn about various types of SEN and how to handle different situations. If a child or young person experienced emotional needs, instructors could invite them to take a short break in the SEN-friendly space until they calmed down and were ready to rejoin the class.
- After refurbishment, more space became available in the Services Centre for organising activities. The Services Centre had also further strengthened support for parents by setting up a resource corner where parents could borrow sensory integration tools and books about SEN. Such resources could facilitate parents' understanding of their children's needs and skill development.
- Youth Advisors would collaborate with social workers from the Services Centre to design activities suitable for young people in the district. These Youth Advisors were usually senior secondary or post-secondary students who had served at the Services Centre for six months or more with basic training completed. In addition, young people in the district could take part in youth-led projects and proactively submit activity proposals to the Services Centre. Social worker instructors, management staff of relevant organisations, and Youth Advisors would assess the feasibility and impact of each activity proposal, as well as offering feedback and resources, in order to support youth participants in implementing their plans in the community.

(B) Update of “Tseung Kwan O Heritage Post”
(SKDC(CICRC) Paper No. 1/26)

6. Members noted the paper.

(C) Organisation of Recreation and Sports Programmes for 2026-27 by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department
(SKDC(CICRC) Paper No. 2/26)

7. Members noted the paper.

8. Members suggested organising more relevant activities to promote pickleball and nurture young people or athletes with potential to participate in competitions.

9. Ms Jenny LAI, Deputy District Leisure Manager (District Support) Sai Kung, Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) gave consolidated responses as follows:

- Pickleball, a new sport, had been widely promoted in recent years. LCSD was currently implementing the “Trial Scheme on Opening up the Arena of Selected Sports Centres for Booking by Individuals for New Sports Activities” (the Trial Scheme) at the arena of Tsui Lam Sports Centre in Sai Kung District, for members of the public to book venues for new sports activities including pickleball.
- LCSD planned to organise fun days for new sports such as kin-ball and pickleball at Tsui Lam Sports Centre during the summer holidays until September this year. LCSD hoped that Members would promote these activities to the public.
